

REALTOR® University Scholarships

Applicants may apply for scholarships during the graduate program admissions process and should work with their admissions advisor to do so. These are individual scholarships based on merit and academic excellence. Unlike loans, scholarships are funds that you do not have to pay back.

Basic Scholarship Eligibility

To qualify for a REALTOR® University scholarship, students must meet all of the following criteria. Students may also be required to meet additional criteria.

- Students must have applied for admission to the REALTOR® University graduate program
- Students must have met REALTOR® University entrance requirements and be admitted to and enrolled in the graduate program

General Scholarship Policies

- Scholarship recipients are responsible for all other educational expenses
- To qualify for scholarship funds, students must maintain continuous enrollment on a semester basis.
- Students eligible for multiple special tuition rates, pricing programs or scholarships receive the one most beneficial

Scholarship recipients are expected to meet certain continuing eligibility criteria and progress in a timely manner toward completing their program. To retain scholarship eligibility, recipients must remain in good academic standing.

Scholarship Requirements

Open to all graduate students who meet the following criteria:

- REALTOR® University student
- Submit a completed scholarship application
- Three signed letters of recommendation from an employer, former teacher, advisor, etc. (cannot include family members)
- Submit a 500 word essay or less on "How do you believe a REALTOR® University graduate degree will help you succeed and meet your career goals?"
- Copy of your official undergraduate transcript
- Copy of applicant resume

Award amount

$750 per course (program maximum per student of $9,000)

Continued eligibility

Applicants must maintain no less than a 3.0 grade point average and be continuously enrolled to maintain their scholarship

Scholarship Selection

The REALTOR® University Board of Regents will refer scholarship applications to the Scholarship Committee for their evaluation, recommendation and approval. An interview with the scholarship committee may be required.

Scholarship Funding

All scholarships made through the REALTOR® University Scholarship Fund shall be paid directly to REALTOR® University on behalf of the recipient. Availability of scholarships is subject to change.
